

96 PART
July 17, 2007
96 Visitors Center

96 PART Members

Molly Harts, Gwen Long, Paul Johnson, Gladys Woodcock, Steve Turner,
Elliott Richardson, Jane Goforth, Deborah Bolton and Debbie Fortner, Donna Wells

Revitalization Plan

Cost - $29,333
Pledges -
Businesses (18) $ 9,350
Town of Ninety Six $10,000
Chamber of Commerce $ 5,000
Greenwood County $ 5,000
Private Donor (1) $ 100
Total Pledges to Date $29,450

Public Presentation

Public Presentation was held by Walter Harris @ The Depot, Tuesday, July 10, 2007 @ 6:00PM.
Also, Jon Baggett with the SC Department of Commerce was present for questions and concerns. Approximately 60-65 concerned citizens attended.

Next Steps

Pledges

- Invoices will be mailed to donors for pledge amounts.
- Revitalization funds will be collected and designated as such by the 96 Chamber Of Commerce until all pledges have been collected.

Donor Recognition

- Each donor will receive a framed certificate of appreciation.
- Donor appreciation ad in the Ninety Six Star.

Revitalization Contract

- The contract will be between the 96 Chamber of Commerce and Clemson.
- The Town of Ninety Six has agreed for Doug Bell, Ninety Six Town lawyer, to review the contract when submitted to the Chamber before finalizing/signing.

Questions and Concerns

Next meeting TBA

